

April 21, 1960

Arlo Dayton

Funeral services for Arlo S. Dayton, 75, rural Stratford were held Wednesday afternoon, April 13, at the First Presbyterian Church in Stratford with the Rev. Robert Carey, Groton, officiating. Burial was in the West Rondell cemetery. Mr. Dayton died Saturday evening at his home.

Mrs. Dayle Luedeke was organist. A duet was sung by Mrs. Robert Knickrehm and Mrs. Lyle Thompson.

Honorary pall bearers were William Baggett, Arthur Brakus, Tyler Olson, Ben Jark, Oscar Ellingson, Walter Dunker, Fred Van Stone, Louis Stoltenberg, Lloyd Larson, Walter Werth, William Jark, Knolen Neill, George Knox, Fred Werth, John Ott and Rudy Vltense.

Active pall bearers were Lloyd Jark, Kenneth Jark, Allen Robinson, Richard Ellingson, Albert Dunker and Vernon Misslitz. Ushers were Clarence McNeil, Robert Hanson, Thurlo Jark and Walter Bartz.

Arlo Spencer Dayton was born July 8, 1890 in Spink County and later moved with his parents to a farm near Stratford, where he lived for the rest of his life. On Sept. 3, 1913 he was married to Nettie Thompson in Aberdeen. Mrs. Dayton preceded him in death in November 1964.

Survivors include six sons, Earl, Hinckley, Minn.; Robert, Orange, Calif.; Ray, Warner; Ben, Columbia; Dale and Donald, Stratford; two daughters, Mrs. Ed (Mabel) Radcliffe, Tustin, Calif. and Mrs. Delmar (Gladys) Hansen, Aberdeen; thirty-two grandchildren and six great grandchildren.

Besides his wife, two daughters and four sisters preceded him in death.